

Interjet Airlines Announces Interline Agreement with Lufthansa Airlines

Agreement with German airline provides Lufthansa customers flying to Mexico convenient connections to Interjet's 55 destinations in Mexico, the U.S., Canada, Central and South America.

Interjet Airlines today, announced the introduction of a new interline agreement with Lufthansa Group providing customers convenient connection between the networks of Interjet Airlines and Lufthansa. Now customers have the convenience of purchasing a single ticket for flights on either airline, checking baggage at their origination to their final destination, and easy connections at the airports served by both carriers.

"We are very excited to announce this important interline agreement between Interjet Airlines and Lufthansa," said Julio Gamero, Interjet's Chief Commercial Officer. "Our commitment has been to offer our business and leisure travelers everywhere we fly, our unique brand of lower prices with free checked bags on select fares, more legroom between seats and great service that differentiates us from our peer competitors. With this Lufthansa agreement, we can offer greater connectivity to more of the world," he added.

Deutsche Lufthansa AG, commonly known as Lufthansa, is the largest German airline and the Lufthansa Group is the world's biggest airline group in terms of revenue and is the market leader in Europe's airline sector. With their premium brands of Lufthansa, SWISS, Austrian Airlines, and Eurowings, the Group strives to be the "First Choice in Aviation". The Lufthansa Group is divided into the three strategic areas: Hub Airlines, Point-to-Point Business, and Service Companies.
