Interjet Airlines announced today, the commencement of daily, nonstop service between Orlando International Airport (MCO) and Mexico City's Aeropuerto Internacional Benito Juárez (MEX). These new flights will serve both the business and leisure traveler.

“With the growth of our Florida business, it was important Interjet serve the 2nd busiest airport in Florida - Orlando International Airport,” said Julio Gamero, Chief Commercial Officer for Interjet. Florida in general and the Orlando area in particular, are growing and significant markets for travel to Mexico City and we're delighted to be able to offer business and leisure travelers everywhere we fly, our unique brand of lower prices with free checked bags on select fares, more legroom between seats and great service that is embraced everywhere we fly,” he added.

Interjet's new service between Orlando, FL and Mexico City will operate using Airbus A320 aircraft seating 150 passengers. Round trip promotional fares from Orlando to Mexico City will start at $190.00 taxes included. This special fare will be available until August 5, 2018, and valid for trips from June 14, 2018, through September 30, 2018. Promotional fares are not available to groups nor can they be used with other promotional fares.
