Interjet Announces Bilateral Interline Agreement with American Airlines

New agreement will provide passengers for both airlines the convenience of single ticket itineraries, bags checked to their final destination and easy airport connections.

MEXICO CITY, May 1, 2019.- Interjet Airlines announced today, a bilateral interline agreement with American Airlines that will provide new benefits to customers flying on both carriers. Interjet Airlines customers connecting through the American Airlines network can now travel with the convenience of purchasing one ticket for flights on either airline, easy connections, and the opportunity to check baggage from their origin all the way through to their final destination. American Airlines customers traveling to Mexico will have the same convenience of a single ticket itinerary, bags checked to their final destination and easy airport connections.

"This is another important interline agreement for Interjet Airlines," said William Shaw, CEO for Interjet Airlines. "Our commitment has been to offer our business and leisure travelers everywhere we fly, our unique brand of lower prices with free checked bags on select fares, more legroom between seats and great service that differentiates us from our peer competitors. With this American Airlines agreement, we can now offer greater connectivity to more of the world," he added.

Sales in the last two years between both airlines have tripled and in the first quarter of this year they have rebounded by 52%, compared to 2018. With this agreement, it is expected that the presence of Interjet will be strengthened in routes between Mexico and the United States.
